SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

12 roots, postpaid, for $2.00

Anyone wanting some good dahlias and not particular about the named varieties should, by all means, order one of these collections of untagged varieties—all different.
Will make a nice showing in your garden.

CHARLES L. MASTICK

(F. D.) Winner of the American Home Achievement Medal. Featured on two Honor Rolls, selected for trial at Wisley, A. M., in Holland and high honors in many European countries and in Australia. Immense exhibition flower with all the good points a dahlia can have; strong stem, immense size, is a free bloomer and good keeper; perfect form and exquisite color, a soft orange darker in the center, reverse grenadine pink which suffuses and brightens the flower as it matures. See it growing in profusion at the Golden Gate International Exposition in San Francisco, California, 1939$2.00
